For each completed year beyond the probation period 2 marks will be given as weightage mark. If there are no sufficient applicants in the concerned subject, the teachers who have taken other subjects where there is no P.G can opt for the above seats. In case no qualified candidates are available from the above two categories in a college, the seat will go to Kerala General Merit.

- 5.3.c The candidates who discontinued the course after joining in teacher's quota from both Aided and Government Colleges & RSQ will not be considered for admission to P.G course in future under teachers/service quota. The candidates who have completed PG course under Teachers quota and Rural Service quota earlier will not be eligible for selection under these quota for a second time.

Only teaching staff whose probation is declared are eligible for admission against the seat reserved for teaching staff.

The teachers working in the Government Homoeopathic Medical Colleges in Kerala, who get admissions to the Post Graduate Course will be entitled to enjoy the benefits extended under the “Teacher Trainee Scheme” as per G.O.(MS) No.42/93/H&FWD dated 27.3.1993 and G.O (MS) No.150/94/H&FWD dated 5-7-1994.

20. Working Hours:

The time of work of a P.G. student should be 24 hours.

21. Leave: The Candidates admitted to the P.G. Course are eligible for 20 days of casual leave per year and will not be eligible for any other leave. Candidates who absent themselves for more than the admissible period of casual leave will have to undergo the course on extension and they will be eligible for stipend for the period of extension. The candidates absenting themselves for more than 20 days and who require extension of period of course shall obtain necessary sanction from the Principal & Controlling Officer.

21.1. The duration of the Degree Course including University Examination is three years. The Course commences from the date on which the first candidate joins the course. The date of joining means the date on which the candidate actually commences the academic programme as certified by the Principal concerned. This date should be given as the date of joining in the Post Graduate register maintained by the University.

21.2 For the purpose of reckoning the duration of the course the candidate will be deemed to have joined the course on the first day in which he/she actually joined the course.

21.3 All the candidates, including those who are admitted under Teacher-Trainee Quota should earn minimum 80% attendance for each year of the course separately.
